

Baltic Rally Trophy 2017 -event in Finland

2017 FRC Vaakuna-Rally in Finland is honoured to be a part of the new regional championship initiated by FIA – Baltic Rally Trophy. Points in this serie are collected during different rallies among Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and now also in Finland. Winners of four wheel drive and front wheel drive will have an opportunity to participate in final event happening in central Europe. During this final competition the winners of various regions will compete to find out the winner of European Rally Trophy.

FRC Vaakuna-Rally is one of seven events in Finnish Rally Championship and it will be driven in 17th and 18th of February in 2017 – at St.Michel, and nearby, in South-Savo, Finland. There will be nine special stages, two on Friday and seven on Saturday. SS kilometers in all, will be a little less than 130. Rally will start on Friday evening with a spectator stage in the surroundings of the St Michel horse racetrack, which will be driven as a Super Special Stage where two cars will set of the same time.

Two days of snow and ice, hairpin bends and hills - Please be wellcome to come and enjoy the race!
