Utena

Utena is a capital of Eastern Aukštaitija and one of the oldest towns of Lithuania that was mentioned for first time in a letter of the King Mindaugas in 1261. Utena is situated in an exceptionally picturesque location – amid the lakes Dauniškis and Vyžuonaitis. For the 750th anniversary of the town a unique attraction – shining and playing fountain with water screen - was equipped in Lake Dauniškis.

The land of Utena is fascinating during all the seasons: in summer holiday-makers are enticed by wonderful Lake Alaušas, in winter – many car racing fans are attracted by the popular Halls Winter Rally. Holiday-makers are welcome to cosy homesteads of rural tourism, the number of which exceeds forty in the land of Utena.

Guests of Utena may visit the only in Lithuania Museum of Ceramics and try to throw a pot by their own hands. If you visit the old post-office in Utena, which many years ago was lyricized by the poet Antanas Baranauskas, you will familiarize with an interesting history of the intermediate station of Warsaw – St. Petersburg highway. Many famous people such as Honoré de Balzac, Ilya Repin, Jonas Basanavičius and others had stayed here when travelling. Regular visitors of Utena can notice that during the recent years the town has been visibly beautified. Some new squares and cosy parks were established, streets are being rapidly improved.

The residents of Utena are hospitable eastern Aukštaitians who will make every guest welcome and willingly show around the town and obligingly accompany them. Come and make sure that Utena is indeed the town of happy people!

Molėtai

Just 40 kilometers away from Vilnius towards Eastern Aukštaitija you can step into the land of lakes and peace and quiet. First mentioned in historic notes in year 1387, Molėtai nowadays is a district of growing interest of tourists.

The reason for the attraction – clean environment and unparalleled landscape. Among the forests, that take one fourth of Molėtai territory, there lie 300 lakes. The heritage of Grand Duchy of Lithuania is preserved by Asveja – the longest lake in Lithuania. Part of Molėtai district is also included into Asveja and Labanoras national parks.

One of the most interesting places in the region – a unique Lithuanian Ethnocosmology Museum. A 36 m high Mindūnai observation tower tempts the tourists to climb to enjoy beautiful sights of Labanoras forest and a group of lakes that are visible from the top. Not to mention the delicious fish soup in the back yard of Lake Fishery Museum. Here in the Videniškiei monastery, the tales on monks spread around it. The history is revived due to virtual reality in Molėtai Tourism and Business Information Center.

The restaurants tempt with traditional Lithuanian dishes, local beer and kvass. Active recreation is professionally organized. Hotels, guest houses, country tourism homesteads, campings and campsites welcome staying in the region. All the Molėtai region really comes to life during traditional events that take place here.

Ignalina

Ignalina motivates for relaxation and comfort. It is a land of forests and lakes. Places of wonderful beauty attracts those, who likes untouched nature, fishing, leisure by the water, tourism in boats or on bicycles, winter sports, gliding or a rest in peace and quiet of rural tourism homestead. Being 108 km away from Vilnius, Ignalina is conveniently reached by a train or a car. The travel will certainly not take long.

Symbol of the Laky land of Ignalina – white water lily – tells about the pure beauty of the nature, clean environment, bright thoughts and dreams. This is why three silver white lilies on blue background are pictured in the coat of arms of Ignalina. The latter was created in year 1970. Later in 1994 the coat of arms, created by the painter Vaidilutė Grušėckaitė, as well as the flag were officially confirmed by the President’s decree.

Various terrain creates an environment for various plants to grow in the district of Ignalina. Plenty of forests, rivers and lakes as well as swamp flora complexes can be found here. 50% of Aukštaitija National Park belongs to the district of Ignalina, that also contributes the amount of flora, because one of the main roles of ANP is to protect the nature of Lithuania. Because of that, since 1974 the growing sites of rare plants are additionally protected. We can count about 900 types of plants in the territory of the region. ANP botanics also calculated 57 sorts of rare plants (and that is 27,6% of total number of flora, included into Lithuanian Red List).

I. INTRODUCTION

“Winter Rally 2019” – the first festival of the year, that will take place in picturesque regions of Utena, Molėtai and Ingalina on January 25-26th. Utena city will become the center of attraction, also hosting a Service Park, the ceremonial start, as well as awarding ceremony and a concert after the finish.

This year marks the 13th time, when the rally is organized by “Pitlane”, UAB and “Nacionalinis automobilių klubas”, VŠĮ. Meanwhile the roots for winter rallies of independent Lithuania, which were later followed up by Utena, lie in city of Visaginas, where it all started back in 1994. The new thing for this year is “Winter Rally” starting the rally-sprint season as well, and for this reason more of the crews and more of the action await in the stages.

“Winter Rally 2019” Rally Guide is dedicated to participants, spectators, mass media representatives and other interests. Rally Guide is not an executive document, but an informational publication.

XVI. USEFUL INFORMATION

Lithuanian climate:

Lithuania is in cool average climate zone and has average warm summers and average cold winters. Average temperature of July is approximately 17 °C (63 °F), winters have average temperatures of approximately -5 °C (23 °F); interval between temperatures is roughly 20 °C (36 °F). There were very warm summers in Lithuania, when air temperature climbed up to 35 °C (95 °F), as well as very cold winters, when air temperature dropped to -25 °C (-13 °F) at daytime, and -30 °C (-22 °F) at nights. According to climate inclemency, Lithuania is ascribed to 5-6 zones. Summers have the highest precipitation (up to 50% of annual precipitation) due to sudden storms, squalls, thunderstorms and rains. Autumn and winter have lesser precipitation, whereas spring has the least rainfall (due to predominant anticyclones).

Lithuanian time zone: UTC+2 (GMT+2) (summertime UTC+3 (GMT+3)).

Lithuanian currency: Euro (EUR).
